

Thank you for choosing to work for our company Jack Atkinson Surveying!

Outlined below are the values, mission, objectives and culture of our company Jack Atkinson Surveying.

Mission

To deliver quality land surveying services to the Snowy Mountains region and greater NSW. Provide jobs and training for trainee surveyors. Promote the best customer service and quality of services.

Vision

Our vision is to create a client centered experience, where our clients receive the best quality personalized surveying advice and workmanship in the most efficient timeframe possible. We strive to create a business that is known across all its aspects for its positive culture, attention to detail, approachability, customer satisfaction, reliability, integrity and friendly service.

Values

- Integrity
- Personal growth
- Professional growth
- Fun
- Family
- Accountability

- Teamwork
- Quality

Culture

Jack Atkinson Surveying is committed to being an inclusive and supportive environment to work in. We understand the impact of family life and the importance of supporting the mental health of our team members. We value our people, encourage their development and reward their performance. Where possible we strive to have a working environment that is both flexible and accommodating to the needs of our employees whether it is physical or mental.